

The Routledge Water Diplomacy Handbook

October Community Gathering

2022.10.10

Asking Questions During the Meeting

- Please remain muted until we pause for questions and feedback.
- The mute / unmute button can be found in the bottom left of the Zoom bar.

- You may always ask a question using the chat feature, and we will address it when we pause for questions.

Agenda

- Brief administrative updates.
- Larry Susskind and Shafiqul Islam reflect on “10 years of learning by doing” since they published their first book and article on Water Diplomacy.
- Q&A / Discussion

Our Vision for the Handbook

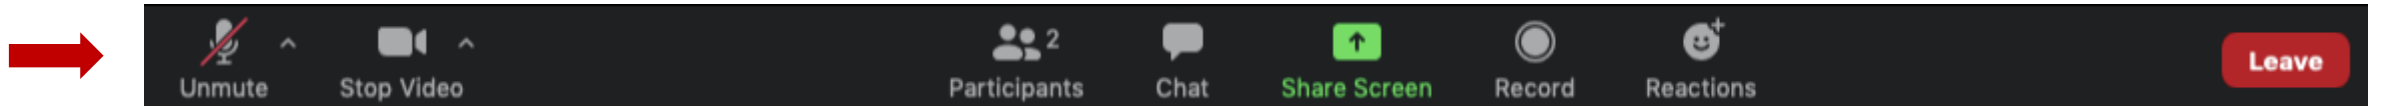

Create an accessible reference for those seeking negotiated resolutions to water conflicts and dialogue opportunities at the transnational, subnational, and community scale.

Administrative Updates

- Editorial review and peer review is ongoing
 - Thank you to the reviewers for their diligence and to the authors for their patience!
- Open access
 - We are in ongoing conversations with the group who has committed funding for open access regarding logistics, review, etc. We may need to share some of your unfinished drafts as part of this process. Let us know if you have any concerns.
- Asana
 - No longer using – didn't work out. We'll use email instead.

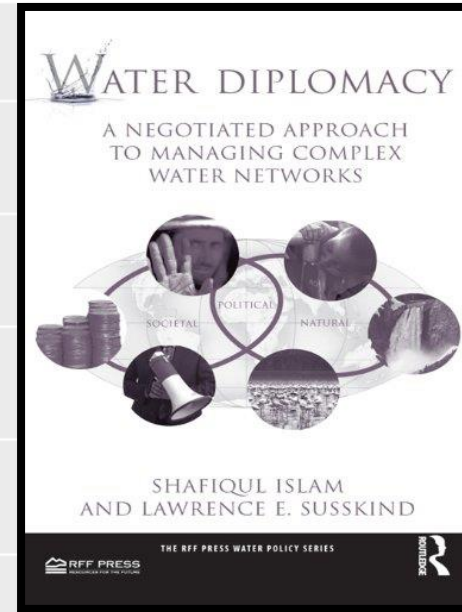

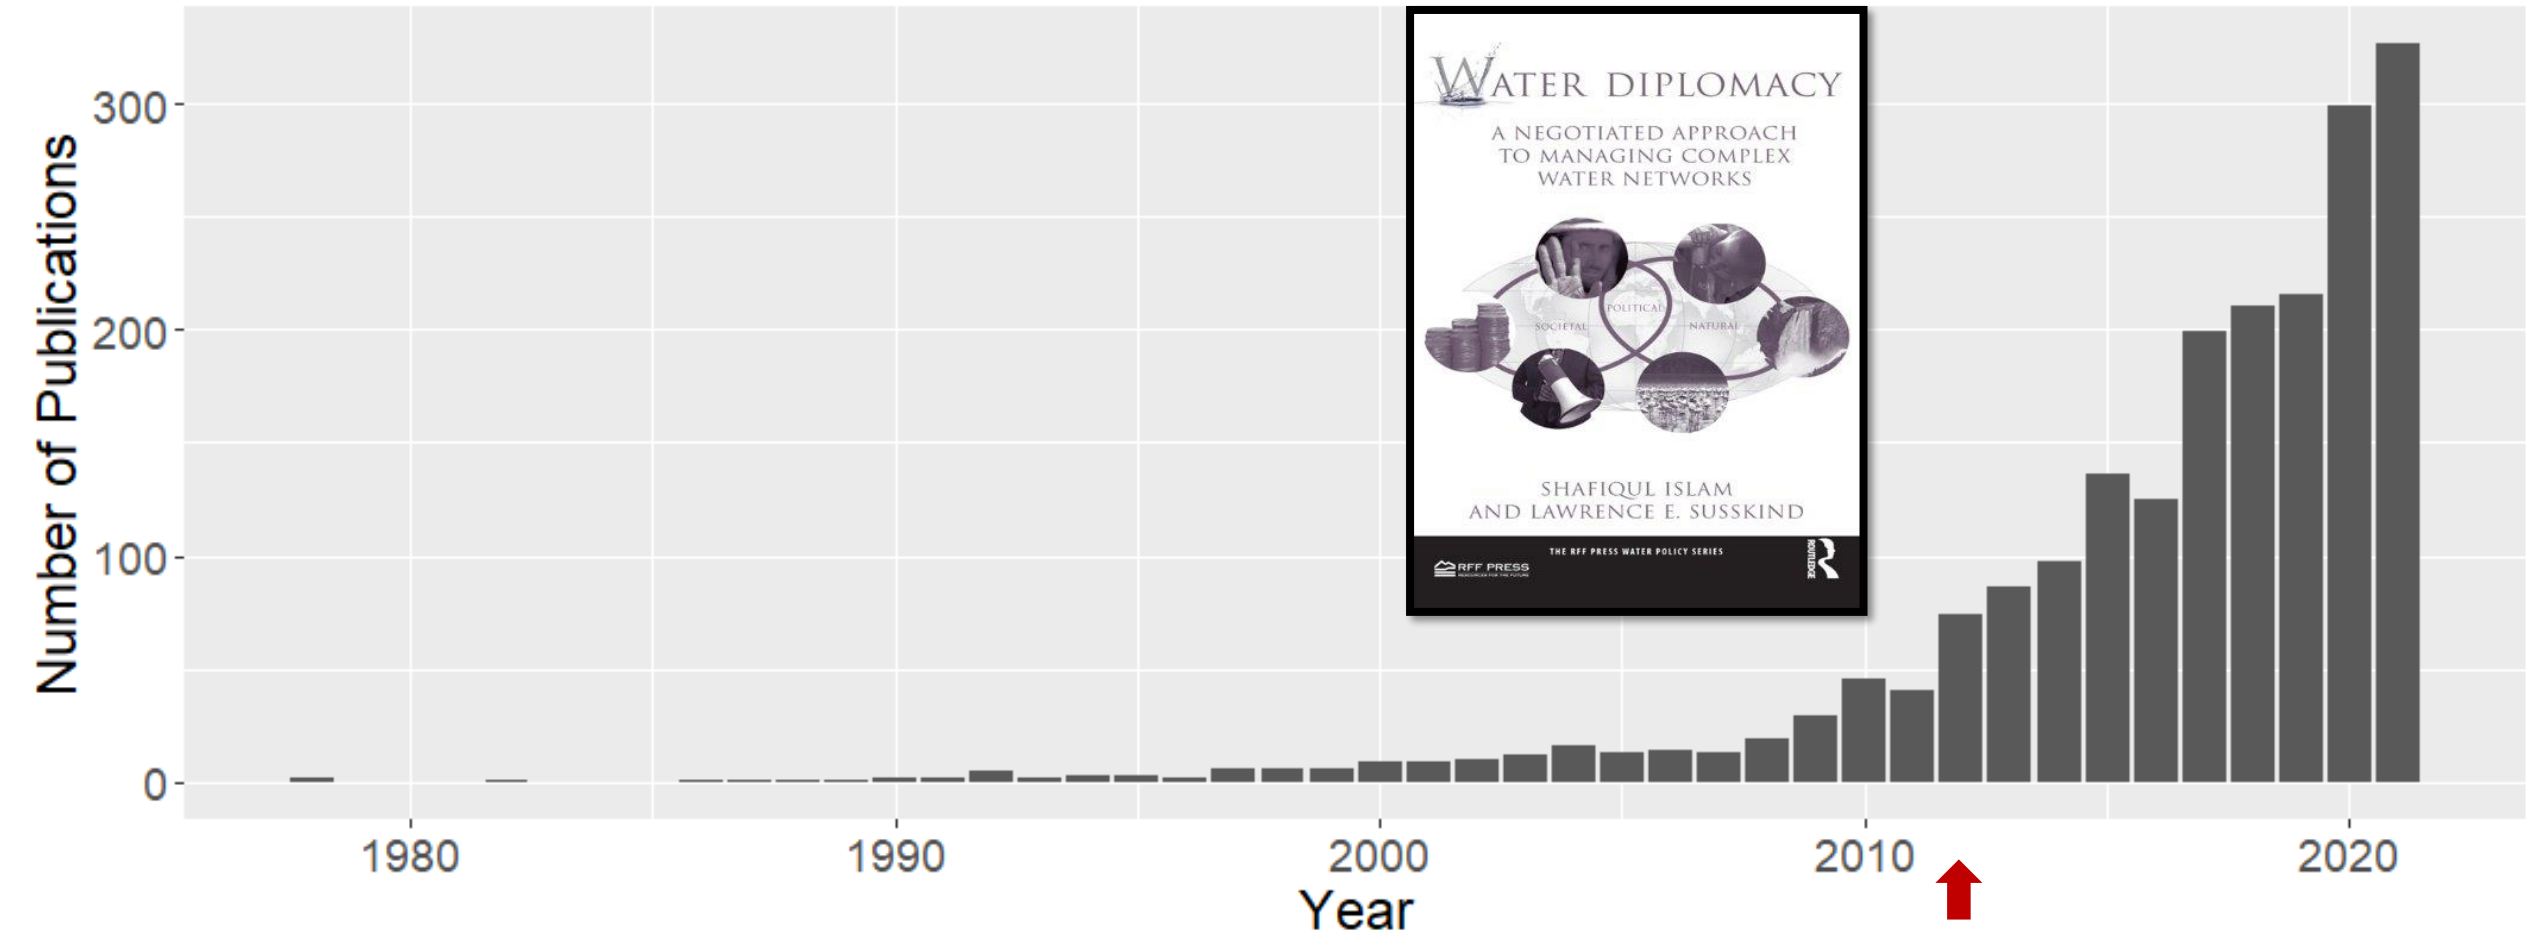

Questions?

Unmute to speak...

...or ask a question using the chat feature.

Publications per Year That Include 'Water Diplomacy' As Indexed by Google Scholar (1951-2021)

Larry and Shafik's First
Water Diplomacy Book